Contract Overflow Psychotherapist

Job Description

Posted Tuesday, July 7, 2026

Application deadline: 20th July 2026

The Ottawa Pastoral Counselling Centre (OPC), a Community Ministry of the Anglican Diocese of Ottawa, has been offering counselling and psychotherapy services throughout the wider Ottawa community for over 50 years. We are currently seeking to hire one Registered Psychotherapist to join our team as a contract overflow therapist. The Centre uses a hybrid model to deliver its services, with an emphasis on in-person sessions. OPC's offices are in downtown Ottawa in the Bronson Centre.

Qualifications and Requirements:

- Master's degree in counselling psychology, social work or equivalent.
- Certified to practice psychotherapy with the College of Registered Psychotherapists of Ontario (CRPO), or an equivalent Regulatory College (not a qualifying RP)
- 5+ years' experience of direct client psychotherapy as an RP (in addition to practicums & course work).
- Experience working with a variety of clinical issues and a range of treatment approaches.
- The candidate must agree to provide a police vulnerable sector check.

The successful candidate would ideally possess:

- Excellent case conceptualization skills.
- Ability to offer either child therapy or family and/or couples counselling, in addition to individual counselling.
- Strong interpersonal, communication, and organizational skills.
- Proficiency in offering telehealth therapy services.
- ASIST (Applied Suicide Intervention Skills Training) or equivalent.

Benefits:

- The OPC provides: an online platform, office and intake services, billing, and receipt management.
- Peer Supervision.
- Compensation: $94 per session.
- Flexible schedule.

Please send an electronic copy of a cover letter and resumé to opc.reception@therapysecure.com

Cover letters should be addressed to:
